Mid-range: Oltukai Lodge <https://www.manrikhotels.com/>

Considered a land of Giants, Amboseli national Park's vast plains stretch into the horizon becoming one with the sky. Amboseli is world famous for its massive herds of elephant including some impressively tusked bulls down to the areas large, lush swamplands.

Also known for its fascinating view of the always snow-capped mount Kilimanjaro (the highest mountain in Africa) This park shares a number of borders with Tanzania and various maasai communities. Amboseli is an amazing gift of natural wonder and home to various birds, small mammals, big cats and more.

One cannot be more awe-inspired by the contrasts and enormity of the African landscape than upon arrival at either in a camp or Lodge in Amboseli National Park. Most of them built with a sensitive eye to its surrounding environment, and sitting nestled in a verdant acacia grove at the foot of the majestic, snow-capped peak of Mount Kilimanjaro.

Luxury tents and lodges with private en-suite bathrooms and unrivalled views of the mountain make this the ultimate place from which to get up close & personal with the abundant wildlife, especially Amboseli's famous land leviathan, the African Elephant.
