Masai Mara National Reserve

With the first light of dawn breaking over the Mara, you will set out for a full-day game drive, traversing the vast grasslands teeming with wildlife. The Maasai Mara is home to the legendary Big Five—lion, elephant, buffalo, leopard, and rhino—as well as cheetahs, hyenas, giraffes, and an abundance of herbivores. If traveling during the Great Migration (July to October), you may witness thousands of wildebeests and zebras braving the treacherous Mara River, where hungry crocodiles lie in wait.

Lunch will be served picnic-style under the shade of a towering acacia tree, allowing you to immerse yourself in the untamed beauty of the reserve. As the day progresses, you will track elusive predators stalking their prey, elephants lazily grazing, and perhaps even a pride of lions feasting after a successful hunt. As dusk falls, the golden hues of the savannah create an unforgettable sunset, painting the sky in fiery reds and deep purples.

Lake Nakuru National Park

It's not surprising that some of the aerial scenes from Out of Africa were shot here in Lake Nakuru National Park, with its fabulous views of the escarpment, lake and acacia forest. What also makes Lake Nakuru such a special place to visit is its populations of black and white rhinos, tree-climbing lions and endangered Rothschild's giraffes. You might also see leopards, flamingos and many different kinds of birds too.

Accommodation | Day 4

Lake Nakuru Sopa Lodge

Lodge | Inside Lake Nakuru National Park

There are many things to love about staying at Lake Nakuru Sopa Lodge, but it's probably the views that you'll remember the longest. From the swimming pool, many rooms, the restaurant and just about anywhere else on the property, the panorama of Lake Nakuru and the Rift Valley Highlands is simply superb. Rooms are large and lovely and flooded with natural light.

Amboseli National Park

You're in for a real safari treat when you visit Amboseli. It's one of Kenya's most beautiful parks, thanks to the fact that Mt Kilimanjaro, Africa's tallest peak (5895m), dominates most views here. Amboseli is also famous for its large population of elephants with big tusks, and you have an excellent chance of seeing lions, cheetahs, hyenas, zebras, buffaloes, giraffes, wildebeests and many gazelles while you're here. With 420 bird species recorded, it's also a great place for birding.

Accommodation | Day 6

Amboseli Sopa Lodge

Lodge | Just outside Amboseli National Park

There aren't many places where you can go for a swim and look up to see Mt Kilimanjaro rising above the not-so-far horizon. That's what awaits you at Amboseli Sopa Lodge, your base for exploring Amboseli National Park. Well-sized rooms with bold colors, a decent restaurant and bar, and a tranquil location east of the park will be further highlights of your stay here.
